Brookside Student Receives Westchester County Clerk's Distinguished Student Award

(OSSINING, N.Y.) – Brookside School third grader Emily Johl received the Westchester County Clerk's Distinguished Student Award on June 27. The award is presented to students nominated by their school districts who exhibit a commitment not only to academic achievement but also to serving their community.

“Ossining residents are so fortunate to benefit from an outstanding school district which helps to shape students like Emily into future leaders,” said Westchester County Clerk Timothy C. Idoni.

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12.
