OHS Seniors Named to Field Hockey's "Golden Dozen"

(OSSINING, N.Y.) – Ossining High School Seniors Jessica Palmer and Caitlyn Lia have been named to the Golden Dozen, among the 12 young women Section I field hockey players selected for the honor, based on academics, attitude, commitment, skills, leadership and community service.

The awards will be presented at the All Section Field Hockey Dinner Nov. 13.

"This is a very prestigious award, and the field hockey program is very proud of both students," said Varsity Field Hockey Coach Allison Pannini. "I am very excited for both of them."

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12.
