Brookside Students Share Drawing, Musical Talents

(OSSINING, N.Y.) – The second and third grade students at Brookside School will showcase their artistic abilities at the school’s “Arts Night” on Thursday, January 31, starting at 7 p.m. Brookside families and the entire Ossining community are invited to attend.

“This evening is a special celebration of Brookside’s second and third graders’ artistic and musical growth and development during this year,” says Brookside music teacher Giocille Shaw, who, with Brookside’s art teacher Rise Daniels, organized the program.

Artworks and art demonstrations will be featured in the lobby starting at 7 p.m. Under Ms. Daniels’s supervision, students will show off the drawing techniques they’ve learned in art class. At 7:30 p.m., the second grade chorus, led by Ms. Shaw, will perform in the cafeteria.

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12. [January 10, 2008]
