Ossining High School Performers Present The Exonerated

OSSINING, N.Y. — Students from Ossining High School Performing Arts will present The Exonerated on Friday, February 1st, and Saturday, February 2nd, at 7 p.m., and Sunday, February 3rd at 2 p.m. at the Ossining High School Auditorium. The Exonerated, a play by Jessica Blank and Erik Jensen, directed by Ryan Spector, details the true stories of six wrongfully convicted survivors of death row in their own words. The play, which is 90 minutes long without intermission and contains mature language and subject matter, paints a picture of an American criminal justice system gone horribly wrong and of six brave souls who persevered to survive it.

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12. [January 10, 2008]
