Celebrated Speaker on Educational Experiences of African American and Hispanic Male Students, Dr. Jawanza Kunjufu, to Speak at Ossining High School

OSSINING, N.Y. —Dr. Jawanza Kunjufu, renowned educational consultant and author, will speak at Ossining High School on Thursday, March 13, at 7 p.m., on the educational experiences of African American and Hispanic males in public schools. A Chicago native and former teacher, Dr. Kunjufu has written more than 20 books dealing with the critical issues of the African American community. Parents, teachers, and anyone concerned with the apparently widening achievement gap will gain knowledge from this presentation. For more information, contact Martin McDonald at mmcdonald@ossining.k12.ny.us or call (914) 762-5760 ext. 370.

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12. [February 14, 2008]
