“Reading Takes Us Places” Brookside Students Celebrate Reading Week

(OSSINING, NY) – Brookside students will celebrate their love of books the week of April 7, kicking off with a Reading Train in the halls of the school that will start chugging at 10 a.m. on Monday, April 7.

Other events planned for Reading Week include visits by two children’s book authors. David Adler, author of the Cam Jansen series and Picture Book Biography, will visit on Tuesday, April 8, time to be announced. Debbie Dudley, author of the Bailey School Kids and Ghostville Elementary book series, will visit the school on Friday, April 11, time to be announced.

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12. (3/2008)
