Telling Tall Tales Brookside Students Celebrate Storytelling Month

(OSSINING, NY) – Kids are encouraged to tell tall tales at Brookside School in May.

To celebrate Storytelling Month at the elementary school, Brookside students will hear stories and develop the skills of telling and deconstructing tales. Student representatives will be invited to present stories at a luncheon sponsored by the Rotary Club on May 28.

The PTA will sponsor several professional storytellers to visit the school during the month. Pam Shembre will visit Brookside on May 1 for assemblies and will visit individual classes on May 15 and 16. Storyteller David Gonzalez will visit the school for an assembly May 30 and will visit individual classrooms May 12 and May 16.

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12. (4/2008)
