Minelli Named “Employee of the Year” by Rotary Club

(OSSINING, N.Y.) – Peggy Minelli, Senior Bookkeeper for the Ossining Union Free School District, has been named “Employee of the Year” by the Ossining Rotary Club, which will honor her at a Nov. 5 fund-raiser.

Minelli has been a member of the Business Office for 19 years.

“Peggy continually strives to provide the highest level of integrity within her role,” said Executive Director of Finance and Operations Linda Carpenter. “She is a dedicated employee who consistently contributes to our District’s commitment to quality instruction and student achievement.”

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,200 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12.
