Ossining Students Garner Awards in Westchester STOP-DWI Poster and Essay Contest

(OSSINING, N.Y.) – Ossining High School Senior Tina Liu won first place in the 9-12 Grade Category of the 2007 Westchester County STOP-DWI and Elks Drug Awareness Poster and Essay Contest. She will receive a $250 savings bond and will be honored at an awards ceremony and reception on Tuesday, May 15, at 4 p.m. in the press conference room of the Westchester County Michaelian Office Building in White Plains. Seventh grader Sydney Steinberg, a student at Anne M. Dorner Middle School, also earned first place in the Middle School Category and will receive a $250 savings bond at the awards ceremony. Eighth grader Christina Rupp, also a student at AMD, won third place and a $50 savings bond.

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,000 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12.
