OHS Students Receive Superintendent's Medals

(OSSINING, N.Y.) –The Ossining Union Free School District has reintroduced its Students of Distinction program, recognizing the academic achievement of students from each of the district's schools at a presentation preceding a regularly scheduled Board of Education meeting. The students' principals introduce each student and outline his or her achievements, and the students receive a Superintendent's Medal of Distinction and Certificate. A book is also donated in the name of each student to the students' libraries.

A presentation took place on Tues., May 8, honoring the following students from Ossining High School: Catherine Ellsberg, Carlos Morocho, Bety Nivicela, Ilana Rice, Juan Sanchez, Michael Tenesaca, Chinam Tomeda, Norma Vivar, Josalyn White, Tina Liu, Victoria Volgende, Supriya Mishra, Rashmi Arya, Lee Saper, Miguel Grigera, Ayako Tachinaka, Janet Butler, Samantha Banton and Mayra Yepes. Congratulations to all!

The Ossining Union Free School District, nationally recognized for its mission to further the success of all children, serves approximately 4,000 pupils in six schools: Roosevelt School for newborn to four-year-olds, Park Early Childhood Center for kindergarten through first grade, Brookside School for grades two and three, Claremont School for grades four and five, Anne M. Dorner Middle School for grades six through eight, and Ossining High School for grades nine through 12.
